“Eye on America” show to feature Trans-Expedite®, Inc

*December 17, 2007, Deerfield Beach, FL – The producers of Eye on America are pleased to announce that Trans-Expedite®, Inc. will be featured in an upcoming episode as part of the show’s series on Eye on Transportation, 3PL Solutions for the 21st Century.*

Certified as a Women Owned Business by the Women’s Business Enterprise National Council, Trans-Expedite® first began six years ago by entrepreneurs Keeli Jernigan and husband Mark Jernigan. From the initial investment of $29,000, Trans-Expedite® has grown to an estimated $20 million in sales.

Committed to providing impeccable Logistics Service for freight management, Trans-Expedite® understands the growing needs of companies and how shipment deliveries and time impact their bottom line. Trans-Expedite® specializes in emergency air charter, next flight out, next-day service, second-day service, three-day select service and ground shipping. Creativity, perseverance and acute attention to detail have allowed Trans-Expedite® to ensure solutions to fit individual logistics needs and timely deliveries.

Trans-Expedite® offers additional benefits for industries that ship materials internationally, such as automotive, electronics, and plastic components through their Foreign Trade Zone service. This allows customers to ship materials from overseas into the Zone to defer, reduce and even eliminate duties and taxes on the imported materials. Trans-Expedite® also offers fixed cost warehousing, order fulfillment, and inventory management for companies.

Trans-Expedite® is able to service shipments from as small as a 1 Lb. box to as large as an entire truck load. All shipments are tracked from departure to their final destinations and customers are able to view the tracking status online.

Offering complete customer satisfaction, Trans-Expedite® is dedicated to personalized service and provides customers with customer care 24 hours a day, 7 days per week, 365 days a year. Trans-Expedite® believes very strongly in its slogan - “When Time is Money, Time’s Not Wasted!”
